PREAMBLE

It is intended that the business of the Courts in St. Joseph County will be conducted by the Judges and Magistrate Judges in a manner consistent with the Indiana Code of Judicial Conduct and that the attorneys and litigants shall conduct themselves consistent with the requirements of the Indiana Rules of Professional Conduct and other rules of court. The conduct of proceedings in Courts within St. Joseph County is appropriately described by the following quotation:

“[L]itigation provides an opportunity for private parties to dispose of disputes in orderly and disciplined fashion. But the open forum which our courts provide for conflict resolution is not, nor can it ever be, a license to slander and abuse one’s adversary. Such conduct diminishes the integrity of an institution whose usefulness depends upon the respect in which it is held by the public and by the lawyers who practice in it.”

Van Iderstine Company v. RGJ Contracting Co., Inc., 480 F.2d 454 (2nd Cir. 1973).

As noted by former Chief Justice Warren E. Burger, “fixed rules of etiquette and manners are the lubricant to keep the focus of the courtroom contest on issues and facts and away from distracting personal clashes and irrelevancies.” Burger, ABA Journal 2, 74 Vol. 60, p.171 (1974).

With this in mind, lawyers and litigants are enjoined regarding their continuing obligation to comply with the rules of court and to maintain an atmosphere of civility within the courtrooms in St. Joseph County.

LOCAL GENERAL AND ADMINISTRATIVE RULES FOR ST. JOSEPH COUNTY
(100 SERIES)

Rule LR71-TR1-101. Intent and Scope of Local Rules.

These local rules are adopted by the Courts of the 60th Judicial Circuit pursuant to the authority of T.R. 81, Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure, and are intended to supplement those Rules.

These local rules shall govern the practice and procedure in all cases in the following courts:

- (1) St. Joseph Circuit Court (hereinafter "Circuit Court");
- (2) St. Joseph Superior Court (hereinafter "Superior Court"); and
- (3) St. Joseph Probate Court (hereinafter "Probate Court").

Wherever appropriate, the term "Judge" shall be construed to mean Judge, Magistrate Judge, Senior Judge or any other appropriate judicial officer of the applicable Court.

Nothing contained in these rules is intended to limit the jurisdiction and/or authority of any judge of Circuit Court, Superior Court, or Probate Court (hereinafter "Courts"); however, these rules shall control the assignment of cases within the 60th Judicial Circuit.

In an individual case, a judge of the St. Joseph Circuit, Superior or Probate courts, upon motion of any party or on the court's own motion, may suspend or modify any of these local rules should the interests of justice so require.

Rule LR71-AR00-102. Conduct, Dress, and Courthouse Policies.

102.1. Professional Conduct. It is intended that the business of the Courts of the 60th Judicial Circuit will be conducted by the Judge in accordance with the Indiana Code of Judicial Conduct and that lawyers practicing in these Courts will do so in accordance with the Indiana Rules of Professional Conduct.

102.2. Behavior in the Courthouse. While in any of the courthouses within St. Joseph County, the following behavior is prohibited:

- (1) Lawyers and litigants shall not lean on the bench and shall not sit or lean on counsel tables or the jury box.
- (2) Lawyers, litigants, and spectators shall refrain from unnecessary conversation in the courthouse or in the courtroom that would disturb the proceedings. Any necessary conversation in the courthouse or in the courtroom shall be conducted at a sufficiently low voice level as not to interfere with the conduct of trials, hearings, or other proceedings before the court.
- (3) Lawyers, litigants, or spectators shall not enter the courtroom with food or beverages. Fresh water is supplied daily and is available to lawyers and litigants at counsel tables.
- (4) Lawyers, litigants, or any other person in the courtroom shall not talk to the court reporter during the hearings in which they are not participating.
- (5) Lawyers, litigants, or any other person shall not chew gum or tobacco in the courthouse.

102.3. Appearance and Dress. Every person who enters a courthouse in St. Joseph County should be appropriately dressed. Lawyers should appear for court proceedings in professional attire; litigants, witnesses and spectators should appear in appropriate attire. Examples of clothing that is inappropriate and is prohibited from being worn during court proceedings includes, but is not limited to:

- (1) Hats or caps;
- (2) Outer garments such as topcoats, overcoats, jackets, or overshoes;
- (3) Clothing that exposes the midriff;
- (4) Shorts of any kind;
- (5) Sleeveless shirts (i.e. "muscle shirts" and "tank tops");
- (6) Shower shoes (i.e. rubber "flip-flops");
- (7) Suggestive or otherwise inappropriate clothing (i.e. poorly fitting, slovenly, or uncleanly).

102.4. Prohibited Items. To insure compliance with state law and to promote public safety, the following rules apply to the presence or use of specific items in and around the courthouse complexes within St. Joseph County:

102.4.1. Weapons. No attorney, litigant, witness, or spectator may possess firearms, knives, or other deadly weapons while in or around the courthouse complexes within St. Joseph County without the prior written authorization of the Judge of the Circuit Court or Probate Court or the Chief Judge of the Superior Court. However, a law enforcement officer who is not a litigant in a pending matter and who is appearing as a witness may retain possession of their issued firearm while in the courthouse so long as he or she advises, and receives the permission of, the supervisor of the courthouse security detail upon entering the courthouse complex or has prior authorization from a Judge of one of the Courts.

102.4.2. Cameras, Telephones, and Other Items. Unless otherwise allowed by this Rule, and to protect the interest of privacy, safety and justice, cellular telephones, smart phones and personal digital assistants (PDA's) are not permitted in the court houses within St. Joseph County. To avoid disruption during court proceedings, the following items are prohibited in the courtrooms and the areas in or around the courtrooms during hearings or trials:

- (1) Cameras, video cameras, or any devices capable of audio and/or visual recording;
- (2) If allowed inside the court houses by these Rules or by order of court, a Personal Digital Assistant, electronic book, telephone, beeper, or similar electronic device capable of making an audible noise shall be disabled or switched to vibrate mode prior to entering a courtroom;
- (3) Newspapers or other periodicals unrelated to the business of the Court; and
- (4) Other items that may be disruptive to the court proceedings.

102.4.3. Photographs. The taking of photographs, sound recording (except by official court reporters in the performance of their duties), broadcasting by radio, television, telephone, or any other means, in connection with any judicial proceeding in the environs of the court houses within St. Joseph County is prohibited; provided, however, that incidental to investiture, ceremonial, training, marital, adoption or other non-judicial proceeding, a judge may permit the taking of photographs, broadcasting, televising or recording. A judge, by specific order, may allow the use of cameras or audio/visual recording equipment in his or her courtroom in an individual case so long as authorized by the Supreme Court of Indiana.

102.4.4. Limitations on the Use of Personal Digital Assistants (PDA's) and other electronic devices. To facilitate governmental efficiency and client service, the general public may bring personal digital assistants (PDA's), cellular telephones or similar electronic devices (hereinafter "electronic devices") into the portion of the St. Joseph County Courthouse complex that contains county and city governmental offices, which is located at 227 W. Jefferson Boulevard, in South Bend, Indiana. To enhance court security and the personal safety of litigants and court personnel, the general public is prohibited from bringing these electronic devices into the remainder of the St. Joseph County Courthouse complex (the portions of the Courthouse complex located at 101 South Main Street and 112 South Lafayette Street, South Bend, Indiana) as well as the Courthouse complexes located at 1000 S. Michigan Street, South Bend, Indiana, and 219 Lincoln Way West, Mishawaka, Indiana. However, attorneys, credentialed journalists, court employees, building personnel, and law enforcement officers and other government employees on official business may bring these electronic devices into Courthouse complexes. Individuals who are allowed to bring an electronic device into Courthouse complexes will insure that the device is deactivated before entering a courtroom and will not be allowed to activate the device while inside a courtroom; however, court staff, attorneys, maintenance staff and security staff may bring an activated electronic device into a courtroom to facilitate court security, safety and operations, provided that the electronic device is switched to vibrate (rather than an audible) mode prior to entering a courtroom. All persons authorized by this Rule to bring electronic devices into Courthouse complexes are strictly prohibited from using such devices for any improper or unlawful purpose, including without limitation the taking of any photographs, videos or moving pictures, recording audio or video, and texting. In the interests of privacy, safety and/or justice, a judge, a bailiff or a duly authorized court security officer may prohibit an individual who is otherwise allowed to possess an electronic device in a Courthouse complex from bringing an electronic device into any portion of a Courthouse complex; provided that if a security officer prohibits an individual from bringing an electronic device into a Courthouse complex, the security officer will prepare a written report detailing the reason(s) and/or concern(s), and shall distribute a copy to the Sheriff and to the appropriate judicial officer(s). By written authorization, a judge may permit an expert witness or other person to utilize an electronic device in a specifically designated area within a Courthouse complex. Nothing in this rule is intended to prevent an individual from using a cellular telephone in the case of a legitimate emergency involving the personal health or safety of that individual or a third party.

102.4.5. Enforcement. The Sheriff of St. Joseph County (hereinafter "Sheriff"), courthouse security personnel, and the bailiffs of each of the Courts have been authorized to monitor and enforce compliance with these Rules of Conduct and Dress. Any person violating the rules regarding photography, cameras, cellular telephones, PDA's or other electronic devices shall be subject to immediate confiscation of the camera, cellular telephone, PDA or electronic device and/or a fine of up to and including $1,500.00 if a camera or device makes an audio or visual recording, or a telephone or PDA creates an audible noise, in a courtroom of a courthouse in St. Joseph County while court is in session, which penalty shall be imposed at the discretion of the judicial officer in whose courtroom the violation occurred or whose court proceeding was disrupted.

102.4.6. Consent to Search. All persons entering any of the courthouses within St. Joseph County are required to pass through a magnetometer/x-ray screening point and to comply with all reasonable requests of courthouse security personnel. By entering a courthouse within St. Joseph County, every person is consenting to the reasonable search of their person and effects to insure that he or she is complying with the requirements of this Rule. The Sheriff, law enforcement officers, or court security personnel may detain any person who they have reason to believe possesses any weapon or other prohibited item in violation of this Rule for a period of time sufficient to obtain name, address, date of birth, social security number, and/or to seize any weapon or other prohibited item.

104.1. Court's Hours of Operation.

104.1.1. Judicial Days. The Courts shall be in session Monday through Friday, legal holidays excluded, and during such other hours as each court may, from time to time, direct or otherwise post. Unless otherwise occupied by court business or the operational needs of the court, each Court will convene on each judicial day of the calendar term.

104.1.2. Legal Holidays. The Courts will follow the schedule for legal holidays authorized by the Board of Commissioners of St. Joseph County, subject to change due to emergencies or the operational needs of the Court.

104.1.3. Emergency Closure. When weather conditions or other emergencies arise, the individual court may be closed at the direction of the Judge of the Circuit Court of the Probate Court or the Chief Judge of the Superior Court. If a closing is announced, the Court and the Clerk of the Court shall make reasonable effort to notify attorneys and litigants scheduled to attend court on that date or time.

104.2. Daily Calendar. Each regularly presiding Judge will maintain a separate calendar. The calendar of cases set for hearing on a given day will be posted in the Courthouse rotunda, on the Courtroom door, inside the Courtroom, and with the Clerk of the Court.

104.3. Hearing on Matters Other Than Trials. Each Judge shall reserve periods of time for hearing matters other than contested trials, such as pre-trial and post-trial motions, rules to show cause, defaults, uncontested dissolutions of marriage, etc.

As necessary to minimize conflicts in scheduling, the Judges shall set these schedules after consultation. Hearings shall be scheduled as follows:

104.3.1. Scheduling Uncontested or Routine Matters. Routine matters, procedural motions, domestic relations applications for provisional relief and contempt proceedings, uncontested petitions for dissolution of marriage, and all other matters appropriate for summary consideration and disposition will be heard on the daily calendar.

104.3.2. Scheduling Contested or Complicated Matters. Other matters that will require a hearing reasonably estimated to last in excess of twenty (20) minutes will be scheduled as the Court's calendar allows. Counsel or a party proceeding pro se should contact the chambers of the assigned judge to arrange for an appropriate hearing date and time.

104.4. Trials. Trial settings will be scheduled by the trial judge. Counsel or a party proceeding pro se should contact the chambers of the assigned judge to obtain a trial date, to schedule a pre-trial conference, and/or to request a copy of the trial calendar.

104.5. Prompt Appearance at Hearings and Trials. Prompt appearance at the time scheduled for all hearings and trials is enjoined upon Court, counsel, and parties. Should an occasion arise when counsel or a party proceeding pro se can reasonably anticipate that he or she will be tardy for a scheduled hearing, or a scheduled hearing or trial must be rescheduled due to an unanticipated emergency, counsel or the party shall notify the Court immediately.

104.6. Penalties for Failure to Comply. Unless good cause is shown, the failure of counsel or a moving party to comply with this rule or to appear for a scheduled hearing or trial may result in a default pursuant to the Trial Rules and/or may be enforced by direct contempt of court, which may result in a monetary fine or other appropriate penalty.

Rule LR71-AR00-105. Court Sessions and Management.

105.1. Circuit Court.

105.1.1. Court Sessions. The calendar year term of the Circuit Court shall be divided into quarterly sessions as follows:

Rule LR71-TR40-106. Case Flow and Disposition.

106.1. Assignment of Cases in the Circuit Court.

106.1.1. Civil Assignment List. The Circuit Court shall keep assignment lists for civil cases. When the issues are closed in any civil case where a trial is contemplated, that case shall be placed upon the appropriate assignment list. Cases shall be placed on the assignment lists in chronological sequence according to the date on which the issues are closed.

106.1.2. Closing of Issues in Pending Cases. Where a party or an attorney of a party has a good faith belief that the issues in a case have been closed by the filing of a pleading or otherwise, the party or the attorney may so inform the Court and any opposing counsel in writing and file a copy of the notice with the Clerk of the Court. Opposing counsel shall then have ten (10) days in which to file written objections to such indication that the issues are closed, unless otherwise ordered by the Court. If no such objection is filed the cause shall be placed on the appropriate assignment list.

106.2. Assignment of Cases in Superior Court. All Superior Court cases (except Small Claims and Traffic & Misdemeanor) will be assigned to a particular Judge of the Superior Court immediately upon filing. Each Judge will be responsible for the management of his or her assigned caseload, and will hear all motions, conduct pre-trial conferences, and prepare individual calendars of cases for trial.

106.2.1. Assignment of Civil Cases in Superior Court. All civil cases, including those transferred to the Court from other counties on change of venue, upon being filed with the Clerk, shall immediately be assigned, at random and by computer, by the Clerk to a Judge of the Court for all further action. It shall be the responsibility of the party filing the case, or the party's attorney, to ascertain the Judge to which the case has been assigned. The Chief Judge, pursuant to statute and Local Rule 109, herein, shall have the authority to transfer cases among and between the Judges or to other Judicial Officers, including Magistrate Judges, Senior Judges, Special Judges, and Temporary Judges, in order to balance the assignment of cases to the Judges of the Court and so as to comply with Indiana Supreme Court Administrative Rule 15 and Local Rule 107, that being the Local Caseload Plan for St. Joseph County.

106.2.2. Assignment of Criminal Cases in Superior Court. All felony criminal cases, including those transferred to this Court from other counties on change of venue, upon being filed with the clerk, shall be assigned to the Criminal Trial Division of this Court. The Chief Judge, pursuant to statute and Local Rule 109, herein, shall have the authority to transfer cases among and between the Judges or to other Judicial Officers, including Magistrate Judges, Senior Judges, and Temporary Judges in order to balance the assignment of cases to the Judges of the Court and so as to comply with Indiana Supreme Court Administrative Rule 15 and Rule LR71-AR1-107, that being the Local Caseload Plan for St. Joseph County.

106.3. All Entries by Assigned Judge. After the assignment of a case to a Judge, all entries and orders, including judgments and orders of dismissal, may be filed with the Clerk, who shall submit the same to the assigned Judge (or, if unavailable, to any sitting Judge) for approval and entry in the court records.

106.4. Listing of Assigned Cases. After the filing of the first responsive pleading, the assigned Judge will cause the case to be placed upon a list to be kept by each Judge of the Court, in which noted cases are subject to call for trial pre-trial conference. Cases may be advanced upon this list by petition to the assigned Judge for good cause shown.

Rule LR71-AR1-107. Joint Local Caseload Allocation Plan for St. Joseph County.

- 107.1. Caseload Review. Not later than October 1 of each year, a committee composed of the Judge of the Circuit Court, the Judge of the Probate Court, and the Chief Judge of the Superior Court, shall meet in person, telephonically, or by other means and shall evaluate each court's caseload data, as reported by the Division of the State Court Administration.
- 107.2. Special Circumstances. The committee shall consider in addition to the actual caseload data, any special circumstances relevant to evaluating the various caseloads of the various Courts and Judges in St. Joseph County. These special circumstances shall include such matters as death penalty cases, Administrative and Special Judge service, availability of physical resources, and any other relevant factors.
- 107.3. Statistical Deviation. Based upon the foregoing caseload evaluation for each Court within the County, the committee shall determine whether or not a sufficient statistical deviation occurs between the Courts which would warrant a transfer of cases within St. Joseph County from one court to another or a limitation during the following year upon what case types may be filed in certain courts or before certain Judges in order to more effectively and efficiently provide services to the citizens of St. Joseph County.
- 107.4. Caseload Allocation Plan and Transfer of Cases. In the event the committee determines a significant statistical deviation exists and is likely to continue to exist the following year, the committee shall unanimously adopt a written plan providing for the assignment of cases and/or for the transfer of cases from one Court to another in order to more equally distribute cases among and between the various Courts within St. Joseph County or requiring that certain types of cases only be filed in certain courts or assigned to certain Judges therein. Such transfer of cases or limitation on filing shall take into consideration the specialized jurisdictional attributes of the Probate Court and endeavor to transfer cases that fit within a receiving Judge's statutory jurisdiction. In the event that either cases transferring in or out of Probate Court are outside the normal statutory jurisdiction of the receiving Judge, the committee shall designate the receiving Judge as a special Judge of the court that retains jurisdiction over the original proceeding. The committee shall also take into consideration the impact of such transfer upon other local agencies such as the Prosecutor's Office, Public Defender's Office, Sheriff's Department, Local Law Enforcement, County Clerk's Office, Probation Departments, as well as the general citizenry and the cost of such transfers. The caseload allocation plan may be memorialized as an appendix to this rule.

LOCAL CIVIL RULES FOR ST. JOSEPH COUNTY (200 SERIES)

Rule LR71-TR77-201. Filing, Pleading, and Motions.

201.1. Flat Filing. In order that the Clerk's files may be kept under the system commonly known as "flat filing," all papers presented to the Clerk for filing shall be flat and unfolded. Pleadings shall have no covers or backs and shall be fastened together at the top left-hand corner only.

201.2. Filing with the Clerk. All pleadings shall be filed with the Clerk, not directly with the Court, unless otherwise required by the Indiana Rules of Court. The entry of appearances and the filing of pleadings or other matters not requiring immediate Court action shall be filed with the Clerk and not in open Court. A Judge may permit papers to be filed in chambers, in which event he or she shall note thereon the filing date and transmit the papers to the Clerk. Unless otherwise authorized by LR 701 et seq., electronic filing of pleadings by computerized or facsimile transmission is not permitted.

201.3. Format of Pleadings. All pleadings, motions, and other papers shall be prepared in accordance with the applicable provisions of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure. For the purpose of uniformity and convenience, the following requirements shall also be observed:

201.3.1. Paper. Pleadings, motions, and other papers shall be either legibly printed or typewritten on white opaque paper of good quality at least sixteen (16) pound weight, eight and one-half inches (8 ½") in width and eleven inches (11") in length as required by A.R. 11. All copies shall likewise be on white paper of sufficient strength and durability to resist normal wear and tear.

201.3.2. Style, Margins, Spacing, and Font. Printing shall be on one side of the paper. Margins shall be at least one inch (1"). If typewritten, the lines shall be double spaced except for quotations, which shall be indented and single-spaced. Type face shall be 12 font size or larger within the body of the document and 10 font size or larger in the footnotes. The font type must be legible and script type shall not be used. Italicized type may be used for quotations, references, or case citations.

201.3.3. Caption. Every pleading shall contain a caption setting forth the name of the Court, the title of the action and the cause number. Where applicable, the pleading shall also contain a Quest or other CMS file number. If a special judge has been assigned to the case, the pleading should also identify the special judge.

201.3.4. Title. All pleadings or motions shall include a title, which shall delineate each topic included in the pleading. For example, where a pleading contains an answer, a motion to dismiss, and a jury request, each topic shall be set forth in the title.

201.3.5. Format and Layout. The separate Court may designate the form and/or layout for pleadings and motions to promote clarity, efficiency, and judicial economy, and to ensure compatibility and appropriate interface with the Odyssey and Quest case management systems. Pleadings not conforming to the designated form or layout may be stricken by the Court.

201.3.6. Signature, Verification, and Other Requirements. Parties and their counsel are enjoined to comply with the verification requirements of T.R. 11, and either the moving party or the party's attorney of record shall sign all pleadings and motions before filing with the Clerk of the Court. Every motion, petition, or other pleading filed with the Clerk shall contain the name, organization, physical address, telephone number, and facsimile number of the filing party or an attorney for that party. The Clerk shall not accept any motion, petition, notice or other pleading or a CCS entry form for filing from an unrepresented litigant unless the unrepresented litigant's current address and phone number appear on the pleading, and an opposing party may service notices and responses on an unrepresented litigant at any address he or she has provided on a pleading.

201.3.7. Restricted Access. Where a motion, petition, or other pleading is excluded from public access under A.R. 9(G), the parties and their counsel are enjoined to comply with the filing requirements of T.R. 5(G).

201.4. Chronological Case Summary Entry Form. Every written motion, petition, or other pleading subsequent to the original complaint presented to the Clerk for filing shall be accompanied by a Chronological Case Summary (CCS) entry form in duplicate which shall contain the title and cause number of the action, the date, and the proposed entry to appear on the docket. The CCS entry form shall identify the party making the filing, designate each pleading being filed, and shall be signed by counsel of record or the unrepresented litigant. The form shall be date stamped and presented to the Court Clerk, who shall initial the form and return the duplicate to the filing party. Hearing dates for filings requiring Court action shall be obtained from the Court Clerk and incorporated in the CCS entry at the time the motion or other pleading is filed. If no date is obtained prior to the filing, the fact of the hearing should be noted with the date and time left blank. All proposed CCS entries must be examined and approved by the Judge before becoming part of the record. The Judge may modify or amend any proposed CCS entry and will notify counsel of any substantial modification or amendment of a proposed CCS entry.

201.5. Service of Copies.

201.5.1. Service Generally. Every motion, petition, notice, or other pleading required to be served by T.R. 5 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure, shall be served on all counsel of record or unrepresented parties either before it is filed or on the day it is filed with the Court, and the date of filing shall be indicated on the Certificate of Service. A copy of the Clerk's CCS entry form of the filing shall also be served on all counsel of record and/or each unrepresented party whenever it contains an appearance of counsel or contains a date for Court hearing of the matter.

201.5.2. Proposed Forms of Order. All proposed forms of order left with the Clerk when the Judge is not available shall be submitted in sufficient number so that distribution may be made to all affected parties.

201.5.3. Distribution. Counsel or an unrepresented party submitting a motion, petition, notice, pleading or proposed order shall indicate the method of distribution desired on the Clerk's CCS entry form. The Clerk will not return or distribute copies of motions, petitions, pleadings, notices or proposed orders, other than those originated by the Court, by mail unless the Clerk is provided with stamped, addressed envelopes. As a matter of convenience to attorneys, each court provides a mailbox for the distribution filings and orders generated by the Court, and it is the responsibility of each attorney to periodically check these mailboxes for service and distribution of court-generated filings and orders.

201.5.4. Service by the Clerk. Whenever the Clerk is required by rule or statute to give notice, the party or parties requesting such notice shall furnish the Clerk with sufficient copies of the notice to be given, along with stamped, addressed envelopes with the names and the addresses of the parties or their counsel to whom such notice is to be given.

201.5.5. Service on the Court. Service on a Judge may be made by delivering a copy to the Judge's secretary or mailing a copy to the Judge at his or her chambers. Service on a Judge may not be accomplished by facsimile transmission; however, a courtesy copy may be sent to the Judge's chambers by electronic mail or facsimile transmission contemporaneously with service by mail or otherwise.

201.6. Numbers of Copies and Orders. The Clerk shall retain the original of all filings. In cases in which a party or counsel supplies the proposed order or decree, a sufficient number shall be prepared and filed as to provide the Clerk to retain two (2) copies, which shall be filed in the flat file and the record of judgments and orders. Should the party or counsel desire additional copies, a sufficient number of copies should be filed to effectuate that purpose.

201.7. Reports. Reports of appraisers, masters, and commissioners shall be filed with the Court in triplicate. Unless otherwise authorized by the Court, a copy of the report shall be provided on either a floppy disk or an electronic mail message with a copy of the request attached in digital format.

201.8. Court Files. No Court file nor any part thereof may be removed from the custody of the Court Clerk by any person, including any attorney or Judge of this or any other Court, except upon authorization by the regularly presiding Judge to which the case is assigned and then only upon such terms and conditions as may be provided by him in the Order for authorization. One unalterable and invariable condition of this Order is the written acknowledgment of the authorized person that he has such file in his personal possession.

201.9. Motions

201.9.1. Scheduling Motions for Hearings. Except for motions to correct error or not likely to require a hearing (as described below), all motions shall be scheduled for hearing at the time they are filed. It shall be the responsibility of the moving party or counsel for the moving party to secure the date and time of the hearing from the Clerk or Court personnel who maintain the calendar for each Judge or Magistrate Judge. It shall also be the responsibility of the moving party or counsel for the moving party to coordinate the hearing date with all opposing counsel or unrepresented parties.

201.9.2. Motions Not Likely to Require Hearing. At the time of the filing, a moving party shall bring the following motions to the attention of the assigned judge:

- (1) Motion for Enlargement of Time;
- (2) Motion for Change of Judge;
- (3) Motion for Change of Venue from the County;

- (4) Motion to Dismiss Complaint by Plaintiff when no Answer has been filed;
- (5) Motion to Dismiss Counterclaim by Defendant when no Reply has been filed;
- (6) Motion to Compel Responses to Interrogatories or Requests for Production;
- (7) Motions to Reconsider

Such motions may be summarily granted or denied ex parte and without the necessity for hearing, unless the Judge, in his or her discretion, determines that a hearing should be scheduled on any such motion and schedules a hearing on the Court's own motion.

201.9.3. Motions to Correct Error. It is within the sound discretion of the assigned Judge whether a hearing shall be held on a motion to correct error; however, any party may request a hearing upon a motion to correct error by filing a written request by separate motion at any time before the Court has ruled upon such Motion.

201.9.4. Oral Arguments on Motions and Other Pleadings. Unless otherwise required by these rules or Indiana Trial Rules, it is within the sound discretion of the assigned Judge whether to allow oral argument; however, any party may file a request for oral argument by filing a written request by separate motion contemporaneously or at any time before the Court has ruled upon the motion or pleadings to be argued.

201.9.5. Motion for Enlargement of Time. An initial written motion for enlargement of time pursuant to Indiana Trial Rule 6(B)(1) to answer a claim shall be routinely granted for an additional thirty (30) days from the original due date or other period the assigned Judge deems reasonable by written order of the Court. Any motion for enlargement of time shall state the date when such response is due and the date to which time is requested to be enlarged. The motion must be filed on or before the original due date or this Rule shall be inapplicable. All subsequent motions for enlargement of time shall be so designated and will only be granted for good cause shown or in the interest of justice.

201.9.6. Motions for Summary Judgment and for Dismissal. Motions for summary judgment or motions to dismiss pursuant to Indiana Trial Rule 12 or 41 shall be scheduled for hearing, unless the Court issues a written scheduling order providing otherwise. (See Local Rule 206 for specific requirements for Pleadings and Motions under Trial Rule 12 and 56.)

Rule LR71-AR8-202. Uniform Court and Case Number Designation. All filings shall conform to the requirements for uniform court and case number designation set by Admin. Rule 8. In addition, all filings shall contain the proper court and case designation as described below.

202.1. Court Designation. Pursuant to Indiana Code 33-33-71-2, St. Joseph County, Indiana, constitutes the Sixtieth (60th) Judicial Circuit. The legal names of the courts within the 60th Judicial Circuit are the St. Joseph Circuit Court, the St. Joseph Superior Court, and the St. Joseph Probate Court. All filings shall properly reflect the legal name of the applicable court. Any filing may be amended, rejected, or stricken if it does not contain the proper case name and/or the legal name of the court.

202.2. Case Designation. At the time of filing, the party initiating the case should properly designate the case type.

202.2.1. Designation Upon Filing. The filing party (or the attorney for the filing party) shall designate the correct case type in the cause number line of each summons and complaint before presenting a new filing to the Clerk.

202.2.2. Proper Designations. Case type designations must conform to the requirements of Ind. Admin. Rules 8(B)(3). Since January 1, 2003, "CP" is no longer allowed as a designator for civil plenary cases; "PL" is now the proper designation for these types of cases.

202.2.3. Failure to Designate. If a filing is presented without a case type designation on each summons and complaint, the entire filing may be rejected or stricken. Should a case be accepted with an incorrect designation, the court may order the matter to be redocketed with the correct case type designation and may require that the filing party pay a redocketing fee.

202.2.4. Advice and Assistance. The Clerk or her deputies may provide assistance to the filing party in this regard, but should not be required to make a legal judgment as to the correct case type designation. Any questions or doubts should be referred to a judge or a magistrate judge in the court receiving the filing.

Rule LR71-AR9-203. Access to Court Records.

203.1. Confidential Records. The following information is excluded from public access and is confidential:

203.2. Access to Confidential Records. Information that is excluded from public access and is confidential may not be accessed without prior written authorization of the Judge who is assigned to a particular matter or is responsible for supervising that office or department that created, maintained, or archived the information. In some instances, access will require prior written authorization from the Judges of the Circuit Court and the Probate Court and the Chief Judge of the Superior Court; in other instances, access will require written authorization from all the Judges of the Circuit, Probate, and Superior Courts.

Rule LR71-TR3.1-204. Appearance and Withdrawal of Appearance of Counsel.

204.1. Appearances. Counsel and unrepresented parties appearing after the filing of the original complaint shall forthwith notify all other counsel of record and unrepresented parties of such appearance and file proof of such notice. Each counsel or party shall file an appearance form (or its equivalent) that includes a mailing address and telephone number. The notice may include a post office box, but must include a physical street address to allow for proper service of process or other notification by the Court.

204.2. Withdrawal of Appearance. Unless authorized by the party in open Court or in writing or upon appearance of other counsel, an attorney will be permitted to withdraw his appearance for a party only after filing a Motion to Withdraw and setting the matter for hearing not fewer than fourteen (14) days from the date of filing. If a trial date has already been set, a motion to withdraw appearance must be filed at least thirty (30) days prior to that date unless the attorney has leave of the court to file in a shorter amount of time.

- 204.3. Service of Notice to Withdraw. The attorney must present to the Court adequate proof of notice to his client, as well as all other counsel and unrepresented litigants, of the intent to withdraw and of any impending pre-trial, hearing, or trial dates. The notice to his client shall be by postage prepaid, certified mail, return receipt requested and received or returned by the Postal Service undeliverable or refused addressed to the last known address of the client.
- 204.4. Contact Information. In cases where the withdrawal of appearance shall leave the client unrepresented, the Motion to Withdraw must contain the address and, if known, telephone number of the client where service of documents can be delivered or other notice can be provided. As required by AR 9(G), this contact information may be designated as confidential and excluded from public access.
- 204.5. Certified Legal Interns. A certified legal intern shall comply with the requirements of the Ind. Trial Rule 3.1 and this Rule regarding appearance. The appearance of a certified legal intern may be withdrawn upon notice to the Court, which shall be signed by the supervising attorney of the certified legal intern.

- 205.1. Initiated by Court. Rules to show cause why a cause should not be dismissed for lack of prosecution pursuant to T.R. 41(E) will be routinely issued and served upon affected parties and counsel by ordinary mail or by personal delivery in all cases in which no entry has been made for six months. Records of the setting of cases for trial and motions for continuance will not be considered as entries tolling the time.
- 205.2. Initiated by Parties. Nothing in Rule 205.1 above shall affect the right of any party to file a motion pursuant to T.R. 41. Unless otherwise directed by the regularly presiding Judge, a party filing a motion for dismissal pursuant to T.R. 41 shall request that the Court set the matter for hearing.

Rule LR71-TR12-206. Pleading and Motions under Trial Rules 12 and 56.

- 206.1. Supporting Memorandum of Law. All pleadings and motions filed pursuant to Trial Rules 12 and 56 shall be accompanied by a separate supporting brief. An adverse party shall have thirty (30) days after service of the motion in which to serve and file an answer brief. Subject to Court approval, the moving party may file a reply brief. With regard to all other motions or matters submitted to the Court, and so long as consistent with Indiana Rules of Procedure, an adverse party wishing to respond shall do so within fifteen (15) days of service. Each motion shall be separate, while alternative motions filed together shall each be identified on the caption. Failure to file an answer brief or reply brief within the time prescribed shall be deemed a waiver of the right thereto and shall subject the motion to summary ruling.
- 206.2. Hearing; Hearing Date; Opposing Memorandum. Notwithstanding any other rule of court, all T.R. 12 and 56 motions shall be set for hearing by the moving party at the time of filing unless otherwise ordered by the Court. Unless otherwise authorized by the Court, the hearing shall be scheduled for a day not fewer than fourteen (14) days after the time period allowed for filing of briefs as specified in Rule 206.1 supra.
- 206.3. Waiver of Hearing; Stipulation of the Parties. Adverse parties may stipulate that a T.R. 12 or 56 motion may be ruled upon by the Court without a hearing thereon, in which event the motion and stipulation shall be brought to the personal attention of the Judge by counsel or by a party proceeding pro se.
- 206.4. Required Notices to Parties.
- 206.4.1 Notice to Parties in Mortgage Foreclosure (MF) Causes of Action. A party filing a mortgage foreclosure (MF) cause of action shall cause to be served on the resident a copy of the Notice Concerning Mortgage Foreclosure, which is attached hereto and made a part hereof as Appendix A. Should the plaintiff fail to comply with the rule, the Court may refuse to enter default judgment, refuse to grant judgment on the pleadings or take similar action until compliance is demonstrated. Additionally, should plaintiff's failure to comply with this rule result in additional costs to the defendant, the Court may order the plaintiff to pay reasonable expenses, including attorney fees, that are related to the plaintiff's noncompliance. See also, Ind. Code 32-30-10.5 et seq.

206.4.2 Notice to Unrepresented Parties Regarding Trial Rule 56 Motions.

Notwithstanding any other rule of court, if a party is proceeding pro se and an opposing party files a motion for summary judgment, counsel for the moving party must serve a notice upon the unrepresented party as set forth in Appendix B, which is attached hereto and made a party hereof.

206.5. Appearance by Counsel at Scheduled Hearings. Whenever the Court schedules a hearing on a motion pursuant to Trial Rule 12 and/or 56, counsel for all represented parties shall appear in person or by local co-counsel at such hearing.

Rule LR71-TR55-207. Default Judgments.

207.1. Proper Service. At the time of the request for entry of a default judgment under T.R. 55, the moving party must demonstrate that service has been perfected on the party or parties against whom default is sought.

207.2. Affidavit for Judgment by Default. At the time of filing of a motion for default judgment or at the time of a hearing scheduled for entry of a default judgment, the moving party shall file an affidavit indicating that the party or parties against whom default is sought is not a member of the military service, is neither a minor nor incompetent, and is not institutionalized.

207.3. Affidavit of Attorney Fees. At the time of filing of a motion for default judgment or at the time of a hearing scheduled for entry of a default judgment, a moving party who is requesting an allowance of attorney's fees shall file an affidavit executed by the attorney requesting the fee. The affidavit shall be in a form and substance to enable the Court to determine if attorney's fees are appropriate, and if so the reasonable amount of fees. The affidavit shall set forth the authority for the Court to award attorney's fees (i.e., statute, contract, etc.) and the basis upon which the proposed fees were computed (i.e., the hourly rate, the number of hours employed or anticipated to be employed in obtaining and enforcing a judgment herein). In the absence of an affidavit or sworn testimony in lieu thereof, no attorney's fees shall be allowed.

Rule LR71-TR26-208. Discovery Requests.

- 208.1. Filing with the Court. As envisioned by the Trial Rules, requests for discovery shall be served upon the parties and should not be filed with the Court unless in connection with a dispute concerning compliance with prior discovery requests. The procedure for addressing discovery disputes is outlined in Rule 208.4 below.
- 208.2. Format of Discovery Requests. Whenever agreed by the parties or otherwise ordered by the Court, a party shall forward simultaneously with the hard copy discovery request (interrogatories, requests for production, requests for admissions, or other requests for discovery) either a floppy disk or an electronic mail message with a copy of the request attached in digital format. Otherwise, an original and two duplicate copies shall be prepared and served on the party required to answer.
- 208.3. Interrogatories. All interrogatories to parties propounded pursuant to T.R. 33 shall be prepared as follows:
- (1) The propounding party or the attorney of record for the propounding party shall sign and date the interrogatories as of the date of service;
 - (2) After each interrogatory, sufficient blank space shall be left by the propounding party as is reasonably anticipated may be required for the responder's typewritten answer. If additional space is required for an answer, the responder shall attach supplemental pages, incorporated by reference, to comply with the spirit of T.R. 33.
 - (3) Additional space shall be left by the propounding party at the close of the interrogatories for the signature and appropriate typed oath or affirmation to be supplied by the responder.

(4) The responding party shall type the requested answers, supply the jurat, and serve the original and one duplicate on propounding counsel.

208.4. Scheduling of Depositions. Pursuant to their obligations under the Indiana Rules of Professional Conduct and as officers of the St. Joseph Circuit, Superior or Probate Courts, attorneys shall make a good faith effort to schedule depositions in a manner in which avoids scheduling conflicts. Unless agreed by counsel or otherwise authorized by the court, no deposition shall be scheduled on less than ten (10) days notice.

208.5. Discovery Disputes. To promote the orderly and expeditious handling of cases to trial readiness, counsel shall attempt in good faith to resolve all disagreements between or among themselves concerning the necessity for and scope of discovery, the necessity to seek sanctions, and/or protection against discovery under T.R. 26 through T.R. 37. After personal consultation and good faith attempts to resolve differences as to the foregoing matters, counsel for any or all parties may move to compel discovery, invoke sanctions, or seek protection against discovery as aforesaid. As a part of such motion, the party shall recite the date, time, and place of the personal consultations and the names of the participants. If counsel for any party advises the Court in writing that counsel for any other party has refused or delayed consultation hereby contemplated, the Court shall take such action as is appropriate to preclude, obviate, or avoid further delay. Where an objection is raised during the taking of a deposition which threatens to prevent the completion of the deposition and which counsel have a good faith belief is susceptible to resolution by the court without the submission of written materials, any party may recess the deposition for the purpose of submitting the objection by telephone to a judge for a ruling instanter, subject to the availability of and within the discretion of the judge. Prior to contacting a judge for such a ruling, all parties shall in good faith confer or attempt to confer in an effort to resolve the matter without court intervention and, if court action is still necessary, the parties shall inform the judge of the efforts taken to attempt to resolve the matter.

Rule LR71-TR16-209. Pre-trial Procedures.

209.1. Purpose of Pre-trial Procedure. This rule is intended to accomplish the original purpose of pre-trial procedure – to simplify the issues, make cases easier, quicker, and less expensive for the Court, lawyer, and litigant and to alleviate the burden of ceremonial detail and to aid the efficient preparation of a case.

209.2. Pre-trial Conference. A pre-trial conference of Court and counsel may be scheduled by the Court on its own motion or at the request of counsel for any party in any civil case in which, in the discretion of the Court, possible problems can be identified, the course and progress of the case, the necessity, sequence, and scope of discovery should be anticipated, planned, scheduled, or estimated for the orderly and expeditious handling of it by Court and counsel. At the pre-trial conference, the Court may designate deadlines for discovery, dispositive motions, or alternative dispute resolution. The Court may also provide the parties with proposed dates for trial, additional pre-trial conferences, and/or require the filing of a pre-trial order. The Clerk shall endeavor to give at least thirty (30) days notice of the initial pre-trial conference to the parties.

209.3. Alternative Dispute Resolution. On the Court's own motion or initiative, the parties may be required to attempt alternative dispute resolution (ADR). Such ADR efforts may include, at the Court's discretion, mediation and/or settlement conferences and may require one or more sessions or sessions lasting a specific amount of time.

One or more of the parties may request that the Court order the parties engage in ADR. Such a request must be in writing and must be accompanied by a memorandum informing the Court of the nature of the case, the attorneys or unrepresented litigants involved, and a history of the settlement negotiations that have taken place to that date and that the previous settlement negotiations made in good faith have failed.

At any mediation or settlement conference, counsel for each party shall be present, in person, and each party or a designated representative having complete authority to settle the matter in question shall be present in person. Any party intending to appear by a designated representative shall advise all other parties to the mediation or settlement conference of that fact and of the identity of the designee not fewer than ten (10) days prior to the commencement of the mediation or settlement conference. Upon request and by leave of court, a party or representative of a party may be allowed to participate in said settlement conference by telephone in lieu of a personal appearance. Should any party or counsel for any party violate the requirements of this rule concerning attendance, the Court may impose sanctions.

209.3.1. Mortgage Foreclosures on Real Estate.

Effective April 15, 2010, Plaintiffs filing new mortgage foreclosure (MF) actions in the St. Joseph Circuit Court or the St. Joseph Superior Court will be required to provide to the Clerk of the Court:

- One (1) additional stamped, addressed envelope, with no return address information, for each individual (but not including any corporation or entity) named as a defendant,

AND

- A service list, including the name, address and, if available, the telephone number of each defendant.

This rule is adopted by the St. Joseph Circuit Court and the St. Joseph Superior Court pursuant to an initiative of the Indiana Supreme Court and the Indiana Housing and Community Development Authority to train and recruit volunteer lawyers to assist homeowners facing foreclosure and in furtherance of the purposes underlying Senate Enrolled Act No. 492 (2010).

All MF actions filed on or after April 15, 2010, in the St. Joseph Circuit Court or the St. Joseph Superior Court, in which a timely request for settlement conference is made pursuant to Ind. Code 32-30-10.5-10, shall be the subject of an administrative transfer to the St. Joseph Superior Court, Mishawaka Division, for purposes of the scheduling and conduct of such settlement conference.

Failure to comply with this rule will delay the processing of the case by the Clerk until compliance is achieved. Unless extended by the St. Joseph Circuit Court and/or the St. Joseph Superior Court, this Rule expires on December 31, 2014.

- 209.4. Adequate Preparation for Pre-trial Conference. The purpose of the pre-trial conference being to narrow and simplify the issues for trial and to expedite the trial, counsel shall report for such conference with the Judge after full preparation including an adequate meeting of counsel as contemplated by T.R. 16(c). In all cases counsel shall be prepared to indicate to the Court whether the case may be tried to a jury of six and whether the Judge may conduct all of the voir dire examination of prospective jurors or the initial voir dire examination with supplemental inquiry by counsel.
- 209.5. Completion of Discovery. In cases in which a preliminary pre-trial conference has been held under Rule 12(b), discovery shall be made in accordance with the scheduling thereof then ordered. In cases in which no preliminary pre-trial conference has been held, all discovery shall be completed prior to the pre-trial conference and no discovery shall be conducted thereafter unless, upon motion or stipulation showing good cause therefore, an order is entered permitting further discovery within time to be prescribed by the Court.
- 209.6. Pre-trial Readiness Conference. At least ten (10) days prior to trial, the Court may set a Readiness Conference. In addition to each party proceeding pro se and counsel for each of the parties, the Court may order that one or more of the parties themselves attend the Readiness Conference. The purpose of the Readiness Conference is to simplify the issues anticipated at trial, and the Conference will include a determination of the parties' readiness to proceed to trial, the progress of the parties in obtaining stipulations of fact and authenticity of exhibits and, if appropriate, the willingness of the parties to waive jury trial. Where the parties have filed a written stipulation signed by all parties addressing these issues and confirming the trial date, the Court in its discretion may vacate the Readiness Conference.

- 209.7. Attendance by Trial Counsel Required. Unless otherwise directed by the Court, each pre-trial conference shall be attended without exception by any party proceeding pro se and at least one of the attorneys for each of the parties who will participate in the trial of the case and who shall be authorized to deal comprehensively with all subjects on the agenda. With prior approval of the presiding Judge, an attorney may appear telephonically. Sanctions for failure to comply with this rule shall be deemed appropriate.
- 209.8. Failure to Attend. Failure to attend and adequately participate in pre-trial conferences as intended by T.R. 16 may result in reassignment of the cause to the bottom of the appropriate assignment list, issuing an order pursuant to T.R. 41(E), and/or the imposition of appropriate sanctions.
- 209.9. Setting for Trial. Civil cases may be set for trial at the pre-trial conference or as otherwise directed by the assigned Judge.

Rule LR71-TR39-210. Scheduling Trials.

- 210.1. Trial Settings. All cases scheduled for trial shall be ready for trial on the date scheduled unless otherwise directed by the Court. Where multiple trials are set on one day, all trial settings shall be considered first settings and the parties shall be ready for trial on the date scheduled unless the parties have been advised of a notice of priority as described in Rule 210.2 below.
- 210.2. Notice of Priority. At the time of setting the case for trial, upon motion of either party and for good cause shown, the Court may order that the parties are entitled to notice of priority. Where notice of priority has been ordered for multiple trials set on the same day, the case assigned a second setting shall stand for trial if the parties are given forty-eight (48) hours prior notice and cases assigned a third subsequent setting shall stand for trial if the parties are given seven (7) days notice.

210.3. Continuances. All motions for continuances shall be in writing and shall set forth specifically the grounds asserted for such motion. Unless otherwise directed or excused by the Court, all attorneys of record and parties proceeding pro se shall appear before the Court on the date of the trial setting. The Court may assign a new trial setting on the date of the original trial setting, or on the date a continuance is granted, or as otherwise directed by the Court.

210.4. Imposition of Costs for Late Settlement. If a civil case is settled less than forty-eight (48) hours prior to the time it is scheduled for trial, or is settled after 10:00 a.m. on the Friday prior to a Monday trial setting (or a Tuesday setting if the intervening Monday is a legal holiday), any costs incurred by the Court as a result of the late settlement of the case shall be divided evenly among the parties and ordered to be paid by them.

Rule LR71-TR47-211. Jurors.

211.1. Jury Lists. The Court will maintain lists of petit jurors who are subject to call during any session of the Court's calendar year term. Such juror lists will contain brief biographical data concerning each member of the panel. Prior to trial, the Judge will provide counsel with a list of the petit jurors called for the trial of that particular case, juror biographical data, and a juror seating chart. Juror lists and biographical information shall be confidential.

211.2. Alternate Jurors. By agreement of the parties or on order of the Court, alternative jurors may be selected and seated, selection thereof to be made after the jury itself has been selected. All jurors, both regular and alternate, shall be sworn as a panel. The parties may also agree to waive the selection of alternate jurors.

211.3. Special Venire. The Court may call a special venire as provided by statute.

211.4. Voir Dire Examination. The Court may conduct the entire voir dire examination of prospective jurors or may permit counsel to do so. The Court shall conduct such portion of the voir dire examination as the parties shall stipulate. If the Court conducts the entire examination, counsel shall be given an opportunity to suggest supplemental questions or lines of inquiry. Further voir dire examination shall be conducted pursuant to the Indiana Jury Rules.

211.5. Passing and Acceptance of Jurors. Unless otherwise approved or directed by the Court, the one pass rule shall be followed; that is, the passing of an individual juror following the voir dire examination of a panel of prospective jurors of which that juror was a member shall constitute an acceptance of that juror by the party so passing. Challenges shall be made at the bench outside the hearing of the prospective jurors and may be made by use of slips of paper of uniform size or as otherwise directed by the Court.

Rule LR71-TR51-212. Trial Procedures.

212.1. Exhibits.

212.1.1. Marking in Advance. All exhibits shall be marked in advance of trial or during recesses in the trial in accordance with the practice of the Official Court Reporter so that the trial is not delayed for the marking of exhibits.

212.1.2. Custody of Official Court Reporter. After being marked for identification and offered into evidence, whether or not admitted into evidence, all exhibits and proposed exhibits necessary to the record on appeal shall be placed in the custody of the Official Court Reporter who shall be responsible for their safekeeping until otherwise ordered by the Judge.

212.1.3. Return to Parties. Any model, diagram, exhibit, or proposed exhibit shall be returned to the party offering it upon request to the reporter after the time for appeal has elapsed or the possibility of further appeal is exhausted, unless the Court otherwise orders.

212.1.4. Disposal. Where no request for the return of exhibits or proposed exhibits is made within ninety (90) days of final judgment, the same may be disposed of by the Official Court Reporter as the Court may direct.

212.2. Instructions Requested at Commencement of Trial. All requests for special instructions tendered in accordance with T.R. 51 shall be submitted to the Court not later than the commencement of the trial or in advance of trial if ordered by the Court. The Court shall, in the interests of justice, permit the tender of additional instructions during the trial on matters which could not have been reasonably anticipated in advance of trial. Requests for special instructions shall contain citations to supporting authorities. Instructions shall be exchanged by counsel as directed by the Court.

212.3. Objections to Admissibility of Evidence. All objections to the admissibility of evidence or to procedure during trial shall be made at the bench in sidebar conference outside the hearing of the jury.

Any proposed order shall be a document that is separate and apart from the motion or application to which it relates and shall contain a caption showing the name of the court, the case number assigned to the case, and the title of the case as shown by the complaint pursuant to Rule LR71-AR8-201. If there are multiple parties, the title may be shortened to include only the first name plaintiff and defendant with appropriate indication that there are additional parties. - 213.5. Orders Following Other Hearings. As directed by the Court, a party or an attorney for a party shall prepare a proposed order based on the decision rendered by the Court. NOTICE REGARDING SUMMARY JUDGMENT MOTION

READ THIS NOTICE AND THE ENCLOSED PAPERS – A MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT HAS BEEN FILED AND, IF UNOPPOSED, THIS MOTION MAY RESULT IN JUDGMENT BEING ENTERED AGAINST YOU WITHOUT A HEARING OR TRIAL.

The Courts of St. Joseph County, Indiana require that this notice be sent to you about the motion for summary judgment that was filed by the opposing party. This notice does not contain legal advice, but does provide important information about your legal options. Please read it carefully.

The opposing party has filed a motion for summary judgment pursuant to Indiana Trial Rule 56(C). The motion alleges that the facts are not in dispute and the Court can rule as a matter of law. The motion asks the Court to enter judgment in favor of the opposing party without a trial.

As you are not represented by counsel, you are hereby advised of your obligation to respond to the summary judgment motion. Your previous answer, denial or even counter-claim in response to the original complaint is not sufficient to defend a motion for summary judgment. Unless you submit your own affidavits (or other documentary evidence) or a response that specifically identifies information within the existing court records that contradict the factual assertions of the evidence designated in the motion for summary judgment and supporting materials, any factual assertions in our motion and supporting documentation will be accepted by the Court as true. In essence, your failure to respond to the pending motion for summary judgment would be equivalent to failing to present any evidence in your favor at a trial.

If you wish to file a response to the motion, the Court must receive your response within thirty-three (33) days after your opponent's motion was mailed to you. Failure to meet this timeframe will result in the Court being unable to consider your response or any attachments thereto.

Either party may request a court hearing on the summary judgment motion. A written request for a hearing must be received by the Court no later than ten (10) days after the response was filed or is due. The hearing will not be a trial, and neither party will be able to present evidence at the hearing. However, either party may make legal argument and refer to the evidence designated with the summary judgment motion or with any response. If no request for a hearing is filed with the Court, the Court may decide the motion without a hearing based on the affidavits and documents filed by the parties.

Any response or request for hearing must be served (or mailed) on the attorney for the opposing party. A response (or other pleading) filed with the Court must include a statement that you have complied with this requirement. Your statement may be in the following form: "I delivered a copy of this response to (Attorney Name) by United States Mail on this ___ day of _____, 20____."

As with any legal matter, you may wish to consult with and/or retain an attorney to represent you in this lawsuit and to assist you in responding to our motion for summary judgment.

Motions to quash or limit a grand jury subpoena shall be filed and served upon the Prosecuting Attorney no later than seven (7) days prior to the appearance or production date unless good cause exists for a later filing. Upon the filing of any motion to quash or limit a grand jury subpoena, the court will endeavor to rule upon the motion on or prior to the return date of the subpoena.
- 303.1.4. Persons Authorized to Appear before Grand Jury. No person shall be present in the hall adjacent to the area or rooms utilized by a grand jury in the process of performing its function. In addition, while a grand jury is in the process of performing its function, no person shall remain in an area in which persons who are appearing before the grand jury can be monitored or observed. This rule shall not apply to grand jurors; witnesses; prosecuting attorneys, law enforcement officers, and employees; court personnel concerned with grand jury proceedings; private attorneys whose clients have been called to appear as a witness at a session of the grand jury then in progress or about to commence; and others specifically authorized to be present at the grand jury proceedings.

To effectuate caseload balancing and judicial economy, other criminal proceedings may be assigned to the Circuit Court by written order signed by the Judge of the Circuit Court and the Chief Judge of Superior Court.

303.3. Other Criminal Proceedings. This Rule applies to all criminal cases filed with the Superior Court, whether initiated by information, indictment (pursuant to Local Rule 302.1), or by transfer from another county. The clerk shall not assign a Judge or cause number to any new criminal felony filings in advance of a judicial finding of probable cause. Further, in the event that the prosecuting attorney shall elect to file a case and request that the clerk issue a summons, without first submitting the case for a finding of probable cause, or after a finding of no probable cause, the clerk shall assign the case as provided herein.

- (4) The clerk shall, upon filing, whether by indictment or information, randomly assign, by computer, all criminal felony cases to the Judges of the criminal division. Should there be a Drug Treatment Court established pursuant to Local Rule 109.2 herein, all cases assigned to that Court shall be done in accordance with an assignment order entered by the Chief Judge. - (5) Notwithstanding the subparagraph above, the Chief Judge may reassign a case to any other Judge of the court for good cause shown by any judge of the court, by agreement between judges of the court, or as may be determined to be in the best interests of the court pursuant to Rule LR71-AR00107, herein.
- (6) Any dismissed felony charges shall, if re-filed, be assigned to the original Judge, notwithstanding paragraph (4) above.

- (1) The names and last known addresses of persons whom the State intends to call as witnesses, with their relevant written or recorded statements;

The State may perform these obligations in any manner mutually agreeable to the prosecutor and defense counsel.

305.6. Defendant's Disclosure. Defendant's counsel shall furnish the State with the following material and information within his/her possession or control:

- (1) Any defense that he/she intends to make at a hearing or trial;

Provision may be made for appearances for such purposes in an order admitting the accused to bail or providing for his/her release.

305.7. Additions, Limitations, and Protective Orders.

Rule LR71-CR00-307. Plea Agreement Deadlines.

307.1. Plea Agreement Date – Felony Cases. In all criminal prosecutions, the Judge may assign a date that will serve as the plea bargain deadline date. LOCAL RULES FOR FAMILY COURT AND ORDERS OF PROTECTION FOR ST. JOSEPH COUNTY (400 SERIES)

Rule LR71-FL00-401. Domestic Relations Authority.

- 401.1. Authority. These rules are adopted pursuant to the authority of T.R. 81 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure and are intended to supplement those rules. These rules shall govern the practice and procedure in all domestic relations cases in the St. Joseph Circuit, Superior, and Probate Courts and are created to foster the healthy and child-sensitive functioning of families.
- 401.2. Definition of Family Cases. “Family cases” means all marital dissolution, annulment, legal separation, child custody, child parenting time and visitation, child support, paternity, guardianship, and adoption cases.
- 401.3. Liberal Construction and Application. The St. Joseph Circuit, Superior, and Probate Courts are committed to a cooperative model for handling family cases. These rules will be liberally construed and applied to serve the ends of (a) ensuring safety, (b) reducing conflict, (c) building cooperation, and (d) protecting children and (e) promoting healthy relationships within families.
- 401.4. Intent and Best Practices. The judicial officers of the St. Joseph Circuit, Superior, and Probate Courts believe that conflict between parties can easily escalate and in some cases end tragically. To avoid such escalation and possible tragic results, the judicial officers of these Courts remind attorneys and parties that:
- (1) Actions taken at any time in family cases, including the earliest stages, will often define much of the future of the case and the family’s ability to function without the constant intervention of the Court.
 - (2) While courts are largely powerless to affect cases before they are filed, attorneys can set a tone of either beneficial cooperation or destructive conflict for families in those cases.
 - (3) Therefore, attorneys’ language and conduct in family cases, including before they are filed, should be governed by a commitment to ensure safety, reduce conflict, build cooperation, protect children, and promote the healthy family relationships that children depend on.

- (4) The St. Joseph Circuit, Superior, and Probate Courts, therefore, expect and will continuously encourage attorneys to conduct themselves at all times, including before cases are filed, in ways that ensure safety, reduce conflict, build cooperation, protect children and promote healthy relationships within families.
- (5) At all times, the attorney's commitment to those ends should include the following:
- (a) Assessment of Case and Safety Considerations. Counsel meeting with a person involved in or contemplating a family case should promptly assess whether the case can safely be handled cooperatively and without adversarial motions or hearings. Unless safety, a history of family violence (including requests for protective orders) or other exceptional circumstances make cooperation unreasonable, counsel should handle the case in ways that avoid court and maximize the prospective parties' and other family members' development of cooperative problem-solving, childrearing, and child protection.
- (b) Cooperation between Counsel before Initial Filings. Counsel representing persons anticipating a family case should make reasonable efforts to determine if the other possible parties have or may be seeking representation. Unless doing so would be dangerous or otherwise unreasonable, counsel should:
- (i) consult and cooperate with each other;
- (ii) attempt in good faith to find cooperative resolutions to provisional matters so that unnecessary provisional filings and hearings can be avoided and early family cooperation can be encouraged;
- (iii) refer parents to resources such as co-parenting education, counseling, and mediation that can help them, their children, and the relationships within the family.
- (c) Cooperation with Self-Represented Parties before Initial Filings. Unless doing so would be dangerous or otherwise unreasonable, counsel should employ these same efforts at consultation and cooperation with self-represented persons prior to the filing of any family case. When safe to do so, counsel should (i) communicate directly with such persons (including a self-represented spouse, parent, putative parent, or guardian), and (ii) take all reasonable measures to avoid provisional filings and hearings on matters that could be resolved by cooperative measures such as discussion, counseling, and mediation. Counsel should be sensitive to the special needs of victims of family violence, and nothing in these rules should be construed to require a victim of family violence to engage in pre-suit negotiations with an alleged perpetrator or to feel pressure to settle because of perceived or implied physical or mental coercion.

- (d) Cooperation after Initial Filings. The principles set forth in paragraphs (b) and (c) above should be observed and implemented where appropriate in all matters arising after initial filings.

401.5. Duties of Attorneys and Parties in Family Cases involving Children.

- (1) Attorneys and parties in family cases shall be responsible to act with the Courts as co-problem-solvers, not mere problem-reporters. Unless safety or a history of family violence requires otherwise, attorneys should:
 - (a) counsel clients, as soon as possible and as often as necessary, about the advantages and judicial expectations of safe cooperation in family cases;
 - (b) refer clients to all co-parenting classes, counseling, mediation, and other problem-solving processes required by the court or that appear to counsel to be promising resources for good family functioning;
 - (c) work with other counsel to ensure safety in families where domestic violence has been, or reasonably could be, an issue;
 - (d) work with all counsel to reduce conflict, build cooperation, and protect children;
 - (e) avoid unnecessary motions and hearings; and
 - (f) use the least divisive processes in pursuing safety, fairness, cooperation, and the best interests of children (where reasonably possible, for example, consulting with other counsel as early and often as necessary to find cooperative resolutions, using service by mail or acknowledgement of service instead of service of process by Sheriff, encouraging restraint and safe cooperation between family members, and exhausting all viable cooperative measures before requesting relief from court).

(2) The Courts will expect all parties and attorneys to consistently pursue:

- (a) personal responsibility by acting on one's own opportunities to solve problems and improve families' circumstances rather than merely reporting on the alleged fault in others;
- (b) cooperation by sensibly defining and pursuing the best interests of all family members, especially children;
- (c) courtesy by consistent observance of respectful language and behavior; and
- (d) focused attention on children's needs, including awareness (i) that parent conflict is gravely dangerous to children and (ii) that the good future relationships between and among all parents, grandparents, and other adults in children's lives must be protected and nurtured in all family cases.

Rule LR71-FL00-402. Case Captioning of Family Cases.

402.1. Dissolution, Separation, Custody and Support Cases. Pleadings in dissolution, separation, custody, and support proceedings shall be captioned as required by statute. Parents and counsel representing parents and grandparents in family cases are encouraged to use non-adversary language in case captioning and pleadings. To facilitate respect, harmony and collegiality, parties shall be referred to using non-adversarial language whenever possible. For example, "child" "mother," "father," "putative father," "guardian," and similar non-adversarial language should be used instead of "petitioner," "respondent," "plaintiff," or "defendant," and "versus" should not be used in the captions of any family cases involving children.

All pleadings in marital dissolution and separation cases in which the parties have one or more children under the age of 22 on the date of the initial filing may be captioned, "In Re the Marriage of _____, Petitioner, Father, or Mother, and _____, Respondent, Mother, or Father."

All pleadings in marital dissolution and separation cases without children may be captioned, "In Re the Marriage of _____, Petitioner, or Husband or Wife, or Former Husband or Former Wife, and _____, Respondent, or Husband or Wife, or Former Husband or Former Wife."

402.2. Paternity and Paternity-related Cases. Pleadings in paternity proceedings will be captioned as required by statute; however, parents in paternity cases shall not be referred to as petitioner or respondent and, as appropriate, shall be referred to as Mother, Father, or Putative Father. Captions in paternity cases will be in the form of "In Re the Matter of the Paternity of _____, a Child Born Out of Wedlock," and shall also include all adult parties such as parents, alleged parents, de facto custodians, guardians, intervenors, etc. If the case is filed on an "ex rel" basis as contemplated by Trial Rule 19(A)(2) or as allowed by statute – this includes actions by the state (i.e., IV-D and DCS filings) – then the caption shall disclose that fact.

Rule LR71-FL00-403. Family Cases Involving Unemancipated Children.

403. 1. Contested Matters.

403.1.1. Referrals for Investigation and Report. A Court may refer contested matters involving child custody and parenting to the Domestic Relations Counseling Bureau (DRCB) or another service provider for screening, investigation, and/or report. A referral may be made prior to hearing, both before and after a final decree, on motion of either party with the consent of the Court, or on the Court's own motion.

403.1.2. Definition. "Contested matters," for purposes of this rule, shall include issues involving child custody and parenting time, which may exist both before and after the entry of a final decree.

403.1.3. Cooperation of Parties. The parties to contested matters shall meet, and cooperate, with the DRCB or other service provider as required.

403.1.4. DRCB Recommendations. Upon referral, the DRCB may recommend either that the parties be referred for interventions (such as mediation, counseling, or case management), or that the parties proceed to an investigation and evaluation. Unless otherwise order by the Court, a DRCB investigation and evaluation of contested matters involving child custody and parenting time will not be conducted by the DRCB unless the above-mentioned interventions have failed or are found to be inadequate to protect the physical safety or emotional well-being of a minor child.

403.1.5. DRCB Reports. The DRCB shall report to the Court on all contested matters referred to its attention. The DRCB shall file its original report with the Court, which shall distribute copies to counsel or to a party not represented by counsel.

403.1.6. Confidentiality of DRCB Records. The records and reports of the DRCB contain information of a private and personal nature, and the release of that information, without court approval and supervision, could result in intentional mischief or unintentional injury to the parties, their children or relatives. As such, the records and reports of the DRCB are confidential, and that any and all access to the notes, records, or reports of the DRCB shall be allowed only by order of the Court that has jurisdiction over the relevant parties and cause of action.

403.2. Uncontested Matters. The parents of unemancipated children are encouraged to develop a parenting plan that is mutually acceptable to the parents and their children. Where practicable and appropriate for all concerned, the Court shall give due consideration to agreements between parents.

Rule LR71-FL00-404. Conduct of the Parties and Counsel in Family Cases.

404.1. Generally. Fault of one or both parties in the breakdown of a marriage is not at issue in a dissolution of marriage action under Indiana law. Likewise, fault is not typically an issue in other types of “family cases” covered by these rules. Parties and counsel are required to focus on the relevant issues in the case and to avoid assigning fault to an opposing party or counsel in family cases.

At all times, the parties to family law cases covered by these rules and their attorneys are to conduct themselves in a manner consistent with Indiana law and rules of court. The Court will not permit unsolicited argument, name calling by anyone, needless accusations, or irrelevant or immaterial evidence to be submitted at these hearings. In its discretion, the Court may sanction violations of this rule.

404.2. Giving Rules to Clients. Attorneys appearing in family cases shall (a) furnish their family clients with a copy of these Rules at the earliest reasonable opportunity and (b) review all pertinent parts with their clients, and (c) assist clients in fully understanding and observing their provisions.

Rule LR71-FL00-405. Expectations of Parents and requirements for Attorneys.

405.1 Expectations of Parents and Attorneys.

- a. Parents and attorneys in family cases will conduct themselves in concert with the courts to serve as co-problem solvers.
- b. Parents and attorneys shall pursue the best interests of all family members with particular deference to the needs and welfare of the children.
- c. Parents and attorneys will pursue all opportunities to resolve disputes and conflicts before relying on the Court for a determination.
- d. Parents and attorneys will treat one another with courtesy and respect.

405.2 Requirements for Initial, Provisional and Other Hearings.

405.2.1. Pre-Hearing Meeting Requirements, Exceptions.

It is required that, unless considerations of safety or other good cause make it unreasonable, before the date and time set for an initial, provisional or other hearing, attorneys and pro se parties shall meet with each other in a good-faith attempt to resolve all issues. Attorneys and pro se parties contacted for this purpose shall make themselves reasonably available for consultation.

Prior to commencement of a hearing or trial the attorneys and pro se parties shall certify to the court that they have complied with this rule. The duty of consultation shall be continuing.

405.3. Resolution of Parenting Time Problems and Disputes

405.3.1 Disagreements Generally. When a disagreement occurs regarding parenting time and the requirements of the Indiana Parenting Time Guidelines, both parents shall make every effort to discuss options, including mediation, in an attempt to resolve the dispute before going to court.

405.3.2. Mediation. If court action is initiated, the parents shall enter into mediation pursuant to Rule 411.1 unless otherwise ordered by the court.

405.3.3 Child Hesitation. If a child is reluctant to participate in parenting time, each parent shall be responsible to ensure the child complies with the scheduled parenting time. In no event shall a child be allowed to make the decision on whether scheduled parenting time takes place.

405.3.4. Relocation. When either parent considers a change of residence, reasonable advance notice of the intent to move in accord with Indiana Code provisions shall be given to the other parent. Parents are expected to discuss necessary changes in the parenting schedule as well as the allocation of transportation costs in exercising parenting time which may result from the move.

405.3.5. Withholding Support or Parenting Time. Neither parenting time nor child support shall be withheld because of either parent's failure to comply with a court order. Only the court may enter sanctions for noncompliance. A child has the right both to support and parenting time, neither of which is dependent upon the other. If there is a violation of either requirement, the remedy is to apply to the court for appropriate sanctions.

405.3.6. Enforcement of Parenting Time.

a) Contempt Sanctions. Court orders regarding parenting time must be followed by both parents. Unjustified violations of any of the provisions contained in the order may subject the offender (noncompliant party) to contempt sanctions. These sanctions may include fine, imprisonment and/or community service.

b) Injunctive Relief. Under Indiana law, a non-custodial parent who regularly pays support and is barred from parenting time by the custodial parent may file an application for an injunction to enforce parenting time under Indiana law.

c) Criminal Penalties. Interference with custody or visitation rights may be a crime under Indiana law.

405.3.7. Attorney Fees. In any court action to enforce an order granting or denying parenting time, a court may award reasonable attorney fees and expenses of litigation. In awarding fees, a court may consider whether the parent seeking attorney fees substantially prevailed and whether the parent violating the order did so knowingly or intentionally. A court can also award attorney fees and expenses against a parent who pursues a frivolous or vexatious court action.

405.3.8. Inapplicability to the Title IV-D Agency. As the State of Indiana does not represent either of the parents in a Title IV-D child support case, this rule does not apply to petitions or rules to show cause filed by the Title IV-D agency; however, the attorney for the Title IV-D agency and the parent(s) and their counsel, if any, are encouraged to meet and discuss resolution of these matters in advance of any hearing.

405.4. Attorneys to Provide Copies of Rules to Clients. It is required that attorneys will furnish their family clients with copies of these rules and assist them in fully understanding and observing both their spirit and intent.

Rule LR71-FL00-406. Protective Orders; Restraining Orders.

Such forms shall be given to the Clerk at the time of the filing of the request for restraining order or protective order and shall be utilized by the Clerk of the Court for insuring compliance with all relevant statutes. Counsel shall be responsible for filing any notice of termination of protective orders as required by statute.

A Petition for Protective Order filed by a party who has an open dissolution, separation, or paternity case shall be assigned to the judge handling the dissolution, separation, or paternity case. The parties may utilize all remedies available in the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure to enforce, modify, or extend the time within which to comply with the Court's reciprocal discovery order. The reciprocal discovery order does not preclude either party from utilizing the provisions governing requests for discovery provided for in the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure to the full extent permitted by said rules.

Rule LR71-FL00-408. Status Conferences.

A status conference may be requested at any time and one may be set by the Court on its own motion after the filing of the initial petition for dissolution.

The primary purpose of the status conference will be for attorneys and unrepresented parents to review with the Court the progress being made as it pertains to the resolution of outstanding issues. Attorneys and parents are expected to assist by informing the Court of all efforts being made to resolve the conflicts in order to protect and serve the immediate and long term best interests of the children.

Counsel and parents should be ready to provide to and discuss with the Court:

- (1) The parents most current Parenting Plan Worksheet (PPW). If the parents have not completed a joint parenting plan, each parent is expected to prepare and provide his or her own PPW.

Dissolution petitions will not be considered uncontested if any issue remains unresolved between the parties.

409.2. Parenting Issues. Parents and attorneys are reminded of their obligation to avoid the use of exaggeration and unnecessarily harsh criticism in their motions and pleadings. Hearings on motions and pleadings filed with the Court in matters involving parenting time and parenting concerns may only be scheduled after first attempting to resolve the issue(s) by reaching agreements that best serve the interest of all family members with particular regard to the best interest of the children. Except in instances where it would be dangerous (i.e. past or present domestic violence; abuse or neglect of children) or otherwise unreasonable to do so, if both parents are represented by counsel, attorneys are expected to use personal or telephonic consultation to resolve any issue before seeking relief from the Court. In that consultation, it is expected that counsel will cooperate to:

- (1) Attempt to resolve the matter(s) at issue;
- (2) Discuss the alternative resources (including but not limited to counseling, mediation, support from the DRCB, etc.) that could be used to resolve the conflict and foster cooperation further serving the best interests of the children;

411.1 Mandatory Mediation. In any case involving unemancipated children, prior to any contested hearing or trial, either before or after the issuance of a final decree of dissolution, on the parents shall participate in mediation pursuant to Ind. ADR Rule 2 et seq., or, in lieu of the foregoing mediation requirement, the parties may participate in another method of alternative dispute resolution (ADR) as outlined in Ind. ADR Rule 1.1. Unless excused by court order after certification by counsel or by an unrepresented party of an emergency or another reason indicating that mediation would be detrimental or counterproductive to one or more of the parents or children, parents shall mediate contested matters, both before provisional hearings involving unemancipated children and after a final decree.

411.2 Exceptions. The Court may excuse the parents from this requirement if an attorney for one of the parents or an unrepresented parent certifies in writing pursuant to Ind. TR 11 that an emergency exists or some other reason exists that justifies a conclusion that mediation would be detrimental or counterproductive to one or more of the parents or children. The certification shall include a statement of facts sufficient to enable the Court to determine whether waiver of the mediation or ADR requirements of this rule is appropriate under the circumstances. Counsel and parents are advised that the Courts do not favor requests for waiver from the requirements of this rule, and that waiver requests should be sought only in exceptional instances and not as a matter of course.

Rule LR71-FL00-416. Standing Order for Parental Education Program in St. Joseph Circuit and Superior Courts.

416.1. Findings. The Judges of the St. Joseph Superior and Circuit Courts find that it would be in the best interest of society, of children, and of the Courts to encourage cooperation and mediation between separating and divorcing parents. The Judges further find that a mandatory parental education program will:

- (1) Aid the children of divorcing parents;
- (2) Aid the parents in post separation parenting;
- (3) Encourage agreements between litigating parents in the best interests of their children; and
- (4) Conserve Court time by reducing repetitive petitions over child custody, visitation, and support.

416.2. Selection of Provider(s). The Judges of the St. Joseph Superior and Circuit Courts shall approve, annually, by order of the Court, one or more providers of a parental education program for the Courts. Approved program brochures shall be provided by the Clerk of the Court to petitioners and served with the summons upon each respondent by the Sheriff.

416.3. Attendance. In all dissolution of marriage or separation actions filed in the St. Joseph Superior and Circuit Courts, both parties shall attend a parental education program approved by the Courts if the parties have a minor child or children less than the age of eighteen (18) as of the date of filing of the action. The parties are responsible to pay the cost of attending the program. All or a portion of the attendance fee may be waived for indigence by the assigned Judge. Waiver of attendance for completion of a similar program, individual counseling, or for other good cause is available from the assigned Judge in individual cases. Each parent must attend and complete the program within sixty (60) days of the submission of his or her registration form with the DRCB. The program provider will furnish each participant and the Court with a certificate of completion of the program. A party that fails to complete the program within the required time period may be subject to a finding of contempt by the Court and appropriate sanctions.

Forms may be submitted between 8:30 a.m. and 4:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. Rule LR71-FL00-417. Additional Support for Families.

At any time parents need assistance to reduce their conflict, foster cooperation, and more cooperatively respond to the needs of their children, they and their attorneys (if any) are expected to seek out the resources that could provide help. The DRCB is available to assist parents and attorneys in identifying alternative community resources, including but not limited to counseling and mediation resources. If attorneys and parents are not able to agree on the alternative resource(s) to use in an effort to resolve the immediate issue and conflict, the Court may select the resource(s) the parents will be ordered to use.

Rule LR71-FL00-418. Alternative Dispute Resolution Fee.

The Clerk of the Court shall collect from every party filing a petition for legal separation, paternity, or dissolution of marriage action under I.C. 31 an alternative dispute resolution fee of twenty dollars ($20); as such amount may be modified from time to time.

A judicial officer exercising Family Court jurisdiction over a number of cases involving a Family may, in its discretion, conduct concurrent hearings in related cases, take evidence on the related cases at these hearings, and rule on the admissibility of evidence for each case separately, as needed to adequately preserve the record for appeal.

Rule LR71-AR00-421. Assignment of Cases and Clerk's Responsibilities.

421.1. Approval of Assignment. LOCAL RULES FOR ELECTRONIC FILING FOR ST. JOSEPH COUNTY (700 SERIES)

Rule LR71-AR16-701. Electronic Filing of Cases in St. Joseph County.

- 701.1. Purpose. The Courts in St. Joseph County, generally, and the St. Joseph Probate Court, specifically, intend to use current technology to improve efficiency, public access, and ease of use. With the approval of the Supreme Court of Indiana pursuant to T.R. 77, the Courts set forth these local rules of procedure to assist the public, the bar, and the courts in implementing electronic filing and computer case management for the Circuit, Superior, and Probate Courts.
- 701.2. Authority. The following rules are hereby adopted and promulgated pursuant to T.R. 81 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.
- 701.3. Control. If any local rule shall conflict with, or be inconsistent with the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure, the latter shall control.

Rule LR71-AR16-702. Filing of Cases in the St. Joseph Probate Court.

- 702.1. Application. These rules apply to all new cases filed with the Probate Court and all old cases already filed with the Probate Court. Old cases will not be required to convert to the computer system until some activity occurs in the case. As of January 1, 2006, all documents (other than those specifically excepted by the Probate Court) shall be filed electronically in all cases.
- 702.2. Case Management System. The Probate Court is utilizing a computer case management system known as "QUEST". A filing in QUEST or a QUEST filing is a filing in the Probate Court's computer system.
- 702.3. Electronic Court Files. Probate Court files kept electronically shall be available for inspection by the public and the bar except for those files that are deemed confidential by statute or court order.
- 702.4. Electronic Filing of Pleadings.

702.4.1. New Cases. Prior to creating a new case in the QUEST system, a party must obtain a cause number from the Clerk of the Court. The cause number may be obtained upon submission of an appearance form and payment of the filing fee to the Clerk [or upon presentation to the Clerk of a court order waiving the filing fee]. Issuance of a cause number does not constitute a “filing” and will not toll any statute of limitations or other time limitation. In order to create a new case in the court computer system (QUEST), a person must have a password and user identification granting access to the system. An action must be commenced in conformity with Trial Rule 3 and pursuant to Trial Rules 4 through 4.17 of the Indiana Rules of Trial Procedure.

702.4.2. Existing Cases. The CCS and pleadings of any existing case may be viewed on the QUEST system by use of a valid password. This does not apply to cases that are confidential by virtue of the law or court order. To electronically file a pleading in QUEST, one must first complete an appearance form and file it with the clerk. Upon accepting the appearance form filing, the Clerk will make that case accessible for the filing of pleadings by the person who has made the appearance. Whenever an attorney withdraws his appearance in a case, his accessibility to that case for the filing of pleadings will be removed.

702.4.3. Time of Filing. Document may be filed through an E-filing system at any time that the Clerk’s office is open to receive the filing or at such other times as may be designated by the Clerk and posted publicly. Documents filed through the E-filing system are deemed filed the next regular time when the Clerk’s office is open for filing. The time stamp issued by the E-filing system shall be presumed to be the time the Document is received by the Clerk.

702.4.4. Notice of Filing of Pleading (Manner of Service). In addition to the usual ways of serving parties of record pursuant to T.R. 5, service may be made by QUEST e-mail on those parties of record or their attorneys who are current users of the QUEST system. Said notice shall indicate the name of the pleading filed, the date it was filed, and any hearing date thereon, if applicable. The notified party or attorney may then access the pleading through the QUEST system. The Clerk of the Probate Court shall maintain a list of current users of the QUEST system.

702.5. System Access.

702.5.1. Password. In order to access Probate Court files electronically on the QUEST case management system, a person must obtain a unique user name and password. Prior to being assigned a user name and password, the requesting individual must execute a user agreement with the Probate Court. Upon receipt of the signed user agreement, the QUEST system administrator will issue a unique user identification and password.

702.5.2. Security. Each person is responsible for the use of his password. No person shall knowingly utilize or cause another person to utilize the password of another without permission of the holder of the password or in violation of these rules. No attorney shall knowingly permit or cause to permit his user name and password to be utilized by anyone other than an employee of his law firm.

702.5.3. Fees and Waiver. The user agreement requires parties to pay a nominal fee. However, access shall be free of charge for parties or litigants claiming indigence.

702.5.4. Training and Assistance. The Court will provide assistance and/or instruction to individuals utilizing the electronic filing system. Provisions will be made to ensure access to the system by disabled or self-represented parties or litigants.

702.6. Electronic Signature of Documents. Documents filed through the E-filing system by use of a valid user name and password are presumed to have been signed and authorized by the user to whom that user name and password have been issued.

The following will meet the signature requirements:

- (1) Where a person's signature is required on a verified pleading or document, the QUEST imprint of the name will satisfy the requirement; however, the attorney is required to maintain an original, signed paper copy in his office. Said pleading or document must be maintained for as long as required by the Administrative Rules of the Supreme Court of Indiana.
- (2) A pro se litigant is required to file a signed paper copy with the clerk unless he is able to sign the pleading or document electronically at the clerk's office.
- (3) An attorney will not be required to maintain an original, signed paper copy of a verified pleading or document if the attorney has a Court approved signature pad which enables electronic signatures to be entered on the verified pleading or document, and the pleading or document which is being filed has an electronic signature affixed to it.

702.7 Format of Pleadings. Pleadings shall conform to form or layout designed by the Court pursuant to LR71-TR77-201.3.5. The Court reserves the right to strike any pleading that does not conform to the requirements of the Quest or Odyssey case management systems, or that create an undue hardship of Court staff who are assigned to prepare and/or complete entries and orders in those case management systems.
